

To Whom it May Concern,

Please excuse _____ from classes during the week of April 8, 2019 through April 12, 2019. He or she will be rehearsing and performing during this time with Cap City Percussion, a world-class percussion ensemble based out of Columbus, Ohio. This is the week of WGI World Championships, our final and largest competition of the season. The event will be held in Dayton, Ohio, and our approximately 50 members will be competing against some of the best percussion ensembles from around the country.

Each of our members have poured hundreds of hours of work into making this group successful, and it is vital for the success of the ensemble as a whole that all of our members take part in these final rehearsals and compete with the group at the climax of this season. That said, we do understand that most of our performers are high school and college students, and have academic obligations. We have worked with our members throughout the fall, winter, and spring to reduce conflicts as much as possible, and appreciate your understanding of their absence during these crucial final days of our season.

Sincerely,

Dan Meehan
Director, Capital City Percussion
